⚠ CAUTION! This training certificate is not the Food Manager Certification.

You have completed the Food Safety Manager Training. If you are required to get the Food Manager Certification and only purchased the Food Safety Manager Training, you can purchase the exam and schedule a proctored session at statefoodsafety.com/fsm. If your area has a Demonstration of Knowledge requirement, check with your health department for any additional steps you need to take beyond completing this training.

Illinois Food Service Sanitation Manager Certification Requirements

In order to receive your Food Service Sanitation Manager Certification in the state of Illinois, you must complete this approved 8-hour training, and pass the nationally accredited Food Protection Manager Certification Exam. You can purchase the exam and schedule a proctored session at statefoodsafety.com/fsm.
